Joe Madden's viery in the Brooklyn Derby increased S. J. Hildreth's winnings for the local seaso to $32,255. James R. Keene standing second in the list of successful owners with $41,02. For Hildreth, Joe Madden is the heasest winner, capturing the Belmont Stake $21,650; the Brooklyn below, $3,675; the Brooklyn below, $3,675; the Brooklyn below, $3,675; the Brooklyn below, $3,675 for Hildreth in the Metrocilitan and $3,850 in the brooklyn, while its Herbert earned $1,225 in the Broadway and $1,050 in the Prognatico.

Mr. Keene's list winner is Hillarions, who gathered $1,074 in the Withers and $4,815 in the Caton Stakes. Sweep won $12,733 in the stlomal Stallion and $825 in two overnight races. Maskette's viscories in the littles and Gazelle Stakes tetted a total $1,010 in the Prognatico.

The Parkway Handicap of $2,500, at a mile and a sixteenth, bit he feature of the card for Gravesend this afternoon with the Hildreth entry—Restigouche and Fitz Herbert—in probable favor over Alfred Noble, Live Wire and Harrigan. For the Astoria Stakes, a dash of five furiongs, for two-year-old fillies, Ocean Bound, Greenvale and Sou seem best. In the first race, a handicap for all ages, at about six furions, the other wire and others.

In the second race, at a mile and a sixteenth, Lad of Langden, Dreamer and St. Joseph may be the factors. In the fifth race, also at a mile and sixteenth, Spooner, Lord Stanhope and Berkeley may go well. Two-year-olds will run in the last race at about six furiongs, with Jacquelina, Reybour and Dalmatian the best.

The entries are as follows:

SUBURBAN STARTER.

When Silk O'Loughlin came here to umpire his first game of the season recently he was received with rounds of applause. He finished with a disgruntled crowd at his heels. If President Ban Johnson had his heels. If President Ban Johnson had his heels. If President Ban Johnson had seen O'Loughlin's decisions in Friday's game many fans are wondering what the American League's chief would have done. Metropolitan fans do not care for kicking and rowdy ball, but they are just as strongly apposed to arbitrary decisions which are probably wrong. President Johnson took O'Loughlin's word as to the controversy with Eiberfeld and suspended the latter om general principles. which was finished a few days ago, Jacob Ruppert possesses the largest Bottling Establishment in the East and the most sanitary plant in the world. It covers an area of 100 feet on Third avenue and 200 feet on Ninetieth street, adjoining the brewery on the south. Over two hundred men are kept constantly employed. The erection of the new building was made necessary to keep pace with the constantly increasing demands, for Knickerbocker Beer has come to be known as the most popular brew in America.

Cleanliness is the dominant characteristic in Mr. Ruppert's establishments. Everything therein is wholesome and hygienic. No germs or bacteria find lodgment to affect the purity of the beverage. Beer is a sensitive product. Like milk or other liquids, it may be affected by environment.

Ruppert's beer is stored and aged in glass-lined steel tanks and is drawn therefrom directly into the bottles with-

An idea of the magnitude of the shipping department may be gathered from the fact that there are three automobile trucks, fifty wagons and one hundred orses constantly employed for the daily deliveries of Ruppert's bottled beers.
